MUSIC THERAPY

Music activates, inspires and stimulates emotional expression. Music relaxes, calms the nervous system and helps restore internal balance. Music moves us to do more and be more.

Music Therapy is an evidenced-based clinical discipline where music is used to effect positive change and foster creative expression in children and adults. In addition to achieving clinical goals and improving social functioning of those with special needs, Music Therapy provides people with opportunities to expand their lives and explore issues through creative expression.

Whether working one-on-one or in a group setting, BKCM offers music therapy for clients to grow through the transformative experience of making music within a therapeutic relationship. Our credentialed music therapists play music with clients using a variety of instruments through improvisation and specific music interventions to address client needs and goals.

“The therapists are some of the best that I’ve ever dealt with and are incredibly skilled at what they do, what they see in the child and in their abilities to help the child develop from whatever point they’re starting from.”
